

Tutorial 12: Programming with AJAX

Instructions

I. Complete the Tutorial

- A. Complete the tutorial named Tutorial 12, Programming with AJAX, in your New Perspectives on JavaScript and AJAX textbook on pages JVS 729 - 779.
- B. Important: See Blackboard's tutorial_12_before_you_begin.pdf document before beginning this tutorial
- C. The data files that you will need in order to begin working on Tutorial 12 are located in the course files folder named `\cit171\tutorial.12\data_files\tutorial\`
- D. Remember to rename any files that contain the letters txt.
- E. Students do not need to complete any of the Quick Checks, like the ones on pages JVS 746, JVS 761, and JVS 779. If you still want to complete them anyway, the publisher has provided the answers to these questions on pages JVS 791 - 792.
- F. Students do not need to complete the Review Assignments on pages JVS 780 - 782.
- G. Students do not need to complete the Case Problems on pages JVS 782 - 790.

II. Upload your Completed Tutorial to the CLC Web Server for Grading

- A. After you have completed the tutorial, use an FTP client to upload (copy) the folder named tutorial from your home computer or flash drive into (inside of and as a child of) the folder named tutorial.12 on the CLC Web server.

III. Verify That Your Tutorial Displays Correctly on the CLC Web Server

- A. After you have uploaded your completed tutorial to the CLC Web server, you need to test to see that it displays correctly through the links on your home page on the CLC Web server at http://www.clcwebserver.com/ftp_username/, where ftp_username is your FTP username.
- B. Important: Always verify that your tutorials display correctly through your home page on the CLC Web server before e-mailing your instructor to grade them.

IV. Send a “Tutorial 12 Completed” E-mail to Your Instructor

- A. Important: After you have completed, uploaded, and tested your tutorial on the CLC Web server, send your instructor a “Tutorial 12 Completed” e-mail.
- B. The subject line of the e-mail you send your instructor should read:

CIT 171: YourLastName - Tutorial 12 Completed

V. Your Instructor Will Grade Your Tutorial

- A. Within 24 hours of receiving your “Tutorial 12 Completed” e-mail your tutorial will be graded and your instructor will enter a score into your Blackboard gradebook.

VI. Follow-Up to Make Sure that Your Tutorial Has Been Graded Before the Due Date

- A. Very Important: After you have sent your “Tutorial 12 Completed” e-mail, follow up before the due date to make sure that your tutorial has been graded.
